

Dupree Makes Determined Defense

Examination of John Dupree, the former real estate man, on a statutory charge preferred by fourteen-year-old Margaret Naujalis was continued in Police court today. Dupree is making a desperate attempt to prove his innocence and has retained Attorneys Cornelius Hoffman and Dunham & Phelps. Several new witnesses were sworn in defense and the examination was continued Aug. 25.