

Secure Another Delay.

The attorneys for John Dupree, who was arrested some time ago charged with a statutory offense, have secured still another delay in the trial. An affidavit declaring the aged respondent to be physically unfit for the ordeal has been filed and Judge Stuart has consented to postponing the case until the next term of court. Prosecutor Brown had hoped to bring the case on for trial immediately at the close of the Tower case.